ACTIVITY: Prosthodontist Day Celebration

DATE: 22.01.2021

REPORT:

The year of 2021 was started with a fear of pandemic amongst the students and patients alike. With the ongoing complications of the corona virus and emergence of Mucormycosis the Prosthodontist day was celebrated with an aim of educating the patients about mucormycosis, other maxillofacial defects and their treatments.

On 22.01.2021 Prosthodontist Day was celebrated with red color selected for the day. Red color signified the modelling wax used in many steps of prosthesis fabrication. Models were used by the post-graduate students to educate the students and mainly the patients about different maxillofacial deformities and their treatment modalities. Certificates were awarded to all.
